Details

1. Reasons for the Acquisition of Shares

The Takashimaya Group considers its finance business as its third pillar of growth following on from its department store and commercial property development businesses. Accordingly, the Company provides financial services as part of its department store product lineup under its Group-wide Machi-dukuri Strategy. Under the Medium-Term Management Plan, whose final year will be FY2026, the Company will aim to achieve further growth by expanding its customer base with new businesses and by building long-term and stable relationships with customers through financial services.

Meanwhile, Claylish Co., Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of CRG Holdings Corporation, is involved in a wide range of businesses to meet the diverse customer funding needs, including business financing, bill discounting, and accounts receivable trading. In terms of business performance, Claylish Co., Ltd. has continued to grow steadily by capitalizing on its strengths of swift credit screening and credit assessment capabilities based on an extensive track record since its establishment in July 2001.

With this acquisition, the Group will acquire business know-how by securing the management and specialist human resources essential to its business financing operations and will work to strengthen its investment and lending business based on its experience in the social lending business. Furthermore, the Group will aim to achieve sustainable growth by leveraging group synergies such as through improving its supply chains by providing financial support to its business partners in the department store business.
